Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

The objective of Ninepoint Target Income Fund (the "Fund") is to seek to provide unitholders with stable, monthly distributions and lower volatility than a direct investment in the broad equity markets by investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of equity index based investments that generates income and using derivatives strategies to moderate the market volatility of those investments. To achieve the Fund's investment objective, the Fund seeks to generate income by primarily selling put options on broad equity indices, including exchange traded funds ("ETFs"). Additionally, it may enter into, or obtain exposure to, systematic put selling strategies through the use of derivative instruments, such as swaps. As part of its investment strategy, the Fund may also:

- engage in short selling in a manner which is consistent with the investment objectives of the Fund and as permitted by the Canadian Securities Administrators;
- · engage in securities lending and repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions as permitted by securities regulations; and
- · hold cash, short-term money market instruments and fixed income securities, at any time, for cash management purposes.

Risks

The risks of investing in the Fund are described in the Fund's simplified prospectus. This Fund is suitable for investors with a low-to-medium tolerance for risk.

Results of Operations

The Fund, Series F, returned 5.2% in 2024, while its benchmark returned 17.8%.

The year 2024 has seen a continuation of strength in technology shares with more muted performance in many cyclical sectors such as industrial and financials. Despite the improved earnings trends, valuation multiple expansion drove a meaningful amount of the equity market performance.

Index implied volatility was relatively stable and low in the first half of 2024, with muted correlation between equities and low single stock volatility. While 2024 was a lower volatility environment compared to prior years, equities did experience a sudden surge in volatility in August 2024, triggered by the unwinding of Yen carry trade positions. This resulted in implied volatility moves well above typical occurrences in comparable equity market sell-offs of recent years. Short-term cash yields moved moderately lower during the quarter post the Bank of Canada rates cuts, meanwhile put premiums moved slightly higher, above the lower premium environment witnessed in the first half of 2024.

The Fund has been positioned for this environment by deploying put selling strategies that provide a protective buffer against moderate price declines in the underlying index. The top factors contributing to performance were yields on short-term money securities driving returns on cash combined with positive returns on the S&P 500 underlying put option portfolio.

The money market securities portfolio and the S&P 500 85 strike laddered puts were the top contributors to performance. Top detractors were the S&P 500 75 & EU 75 strike laddered puts. During the period, the portfolio increased the proportional position in S&P 500 85 & 80 strike laddered puts. The Fund also increased its proportional put selling exposure to European SX5E underlying index and Canadian S&P/TSX 60 underlying index. These combined actions were taken to increase the potential of the portfolio to generate long-term income distributions.

The Fund's net asset value decreased by 24.5% during the year, from $38.6 million as at December 31, 2023 to $29.1 million as at December 31, 2024. This change was predominantly due to net redemptions of $9.2 million and expenses of $0.3 million.

Recent Developments

There were no material changes to the investment strategy and features of the Fund during the year ended December 31, 2024. The Manager actively monitors the positioning of the Fund's portfolio for changes in current market conditions and the economic environment.

- 1 This information is provided as at December 31 for the years shown.
- Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The Manager may waive or absorb a portion of the operating expenses of the Fund. Waivers and absorption can be terminated at any time.
- The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The TER includes dividend expense and securities borrowing expense paid by the Fund in connection with securities sold short.
- The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio adviser trades its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Fund.
- 5 Last closing price as at December 31 for the years shown.

Past Performance

The indicated rates of return are the historical total returns including changes in unit values and assume reinvestment of all distributions in additional units of the relevant Series of the Fund. These returns do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by any unitholder that may reduce returns. Please note that past performance is not indicative of future performance. All rates of return are calculated based on the Net Asset Value of the particular Series of the Fund.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following charts indicate the performance of each Series of the Fund for the years ended December 31 shown, unless otherwise indicated. The chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each period would have grown or decreased by the last day of each period. Returns are not shown for a Series in any period in which there were no outstanding units as at the end of the period.

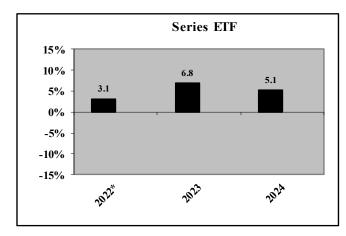

Return from June 29, 2022 (launch date) for Series S units, Series SF units and ETF Series units, and August 2, 2022 (first issuance) for Series A units and Series F units, to December 31, 2022 (not annualized).

Annual Compound Returns

The following table illustrates the annual compound total return for each Series of units of the Fund for the periods shown. As a basis of performance comparison, the annual compound return of the Fund is compared to its benchmark (the "Index") which tracks the value of a hypothetical portfolio of securities that yields a buffered exposure to S&P 500 stock returns. Since the Fund does not necessarily invest in the same securities or in the same proportion as the index, the performance of the Fund is not expected to equal the performance of the Index.
