Before you invest, consider how the ETF would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

This ETF is an alternative mutual fund. It is permitted to invest in asset classes or use investment strategies that are not permitted for other types of mutual funds. The specific strategies that differentiate this ETF from other types of mutual funds include the ability to invest more than 10% of its net asset value in securities of a single issuer, the ability to borrow cash, to short sell beyond the limits prescribed for conventional mutual funds and to employ leverage. While these specific strategies will be used in accordance with the ETF’s investment objectives and strategies, during certain market conditions they may accelerate the pace at which your investment decreases in value.

WHAT DOES THE ETF INVEST IN?

The ETF seeks to provide securityholders with (i) long-term capital appreciation through purchasing and holding, on a levered basis, Class A common stock of Space Exploration Technologies Corp. and (ii) high monthly cash distributions. To achieve its investment objectives, the ETF will write covered call options on shares of Space Exploration Technologies Corp., including shares acquired with borrowings. The proportion of covered call options written will vary depending on market conditions and will be based on the ETF’s distribution policy, subject to a maximum write level of 50% of the portfolio securities held by the ETF.

The ETF uses leverage to seek to achieve its investment objective. Leverage is created through the use of cash borrowings or as otherwise permitted under applicable securities legislation. The aggregate exposure of the ETF to cash borrowing will be up to 33% of unlevered net asset value.

HOW RISKY IS IT?

The value of the ETF can go down as well as up. You could lose money. One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund’s returns change over time. This is called “volatility.” In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend

RISK RATING

Ninepoint Partners LP has rated the volatility of this ETF as high. Because this is a new ETF, the risk rating is only an estimate by Ninepoint Partners LP. Generally, the rating is based on how much the ETF’s returns have changed from year to year. It doesn’t tell you how volatile the ETF will be in the future. The rating can change over time. An ETF with a low risk rating can still lose money.

to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

TRADING ETFs

ETFs hold a basket of investments, like mutual funds, but trade on exchanges like stocks. Here are a few things to keep in mind when trading ETFs:

Pricing

ETFs have two sets of prices: market price and net asset value (NAV).

Market price

- ETFs are bought and sold on exchanges at the market price. The market price can change throughout the trading day. Factors like supply, demand, and changes in the value of the ETF's investments can affect the market price.
- You can get price quotes any time during the trading day. Quotes have two parts: bid and ask.
- The bid is the highest price a buyer is willing to pay if you want to sell your ETF Units. The ask is the lowest price a seller is willing to accept if you want to buy ETF Units. The difference between the two is called the "bid-ask spread".
- In general, a smaller bid-ask spread means the ETF is more liquid. That means you are more likely to get the price you expect.

Net asset value (NAV)

- Like mutual funds, ETFs have a NAV. It is calculated after the close of each trading day and reflects the value of an ETF's investments at that point in time.
- NAV is used to calculate financial information for reporting purposes – like the returns shown in this document.

Orders

There are two main options for placing trades: market orders and limit orders. A market order lets you buy or sell shares at the current market price. A limit order lets you set the price at which you are willing to buy or sell shares.

Timing

In general, market prices of ETFs can be more volatile around the start and end of the trading day. Consider using a limit order or placing a trade at another time during the trading day.

WHO IS THIS ETF FOR? Investors who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • are looking for high income and long-term capital appreciation from exposure to Class A common stock of Space Exploration Technologies Corp. • want a medium to long-term investment • can handle the market variability of Space Exploration Technologies Corp. 	A WORD ABOUT TAX In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on an ETF. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live, the type of earnings (i.e., income or capital gains), and whether or not you hold the ETF in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account. Keep in mind that if you hold your ETF in a non-registered account, distributions from the ETF are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.
HOW MUCH DOES IT COST? This section shows the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell ETF Units. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among ETFs. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other ETFs and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost. 1. Brokerage commissions You may have to pay a commission every time you buy and sell ETF Units. Commissions may vary by brokerage firm. Some brokerage firms may offer commission-free ETFs or require a minimum purchase amount. 2. ETF Expenses You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the ETF's returns. The ETF's expenses are made up of the management fee, operating expenses and trading costs. The ETF's annual management fee is 0.29% of the ETF's value. As this ETF is new, operating expenses and trading costs are not yet available. At its discretion, the Manager may choose to waive all or a portion of the management fee for the ETF resulting in a reduction of the management fee charged to the ETF. In the event all or a portion of the management fee is waived, the Manager reserves the right to discontinue such waiver at any time without notice to or the consent of securityholders. Based on such discretion, the Manager has temporarily waived all of the management fee on the ETF Units of the ETF effective through to September 30, 2026 such that, until that time, the management fees of the ETF will be nil (the "Temporary Fee Reduction"). After September 30, 2026, unless further extended, the Temporary Fee Reduction will expire (without requiring notice to, or approval by, securityholders) and the management fee will be charged as described in the paragraph above.
Trailing commission The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own the ETF. It is for the services and advice that your representative and their firm provide to you. This ETF doesn't have a trailing commission.
WHAT IF I CHANGE MY MIND? Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase. In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase or, in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, ETF Facts document or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory. For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.	FOR MORE INFORMATION Contact Ninepoint Partners LP or your representative for a copy of the ETF's simplified prospectus and other disclosure documents.
