HOW RISKY IS IT?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund’s returns change over time. This is called “volatility.”

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

RISK RATING

Ninepoint Partners LP has rated the volatility of this Fund as medium.

This rating is based on how much the Fund’s returns have changed from year to year. It doesn’t tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the Fund’s returns, see “What Are the Risks of Investing in the Fund?” section of the Fund’s simplified prospectus.

NO GUARANTEES

Like most mutual funds, this Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

TRADING ETF SERIES

Exchange-traded series hold a basket of investments, like mutual funds, but trade on exchanges like stocks. Here are a few things to keep in mind when trading exchange-traded series:

Pricing

Exchange-traded series have two sets of prices: market price and net asset value (NAV).

Market price

- Exchange-traded series are bought and sold on exchanges at the market price. The market price can change throughout the trading day. Factors like supply, demand, and changes in the value of a Fund's investments can effect the market price.
- You can get price quotes any time during the trading day. Quotes have two parts: bid and ask.
- The bid is the highest price a buyer is willing to pay if you want to sell your exchange-traded units. The ask is the lowest price a seller is willing to accept if you want to buy exchange traded units. The difference between the two is called the "bid-ask spread".
- In general, a smaller bid-ask spread means the exchange-traded series is more liquid. That means you are more likely to get the price you expect.

Net asset value (NAV)

- Like mutual funds, exchange-traded series have a NAV. It is calculated after the close of each trading day and reflects the value of a Fund's investments at that point in time.
- NAV is used to calculate financial information for reporting purposes – like the returns shown in this document.

Orders

There are two main options for placing trades: market orders and limit orders. A market order lets you buy or sell exchange-traded units at the current market price. A limit order lets you set the price at which you are willing to buy or sell exchange-traded units.

Timing

In general, market prices of exchange-traded series can be more volatile around the start and end of the trading day. Consider using a limit order or placing a trade at another time during the trading day.

WHO IS THIS FUND FOR?

The Fund is suitable for those investors seeking to capture growth potential of dividend paying and non-dividend paying global equities and capital appreciation from concentrated exposure to global equities focusing on innovation, exceptional product or service development and corporate leadership. The Fund is suitable for investors with a medium to long-term investment horizon.

A WORD ABOUT TAX

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live, the type of earnings (i.e., income or capital gains), and whether or not you hold the Fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your Fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

This section shows the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell ETF Series units of the Fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other series, funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Brokerage commissions

You may have to pay a commission every time you buy and sell ETF Series units of the Fund. Commissions may vary by brokerage firm. Some brokerage firms may offer commission-free funds or require a minimum purchase amount.

2. Fund Expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns.

The Fund's expenses are made up of the management fee, operating expenses and trading costs. The series' annual management fee is 0.85% of the series' value. As this series is new, operating expenses and trading costs are not yet available.

At its discretion, the Manager may choose to waive all or a portion of the management fee for any series of the Fund, resulting in a reduction of the management fee charged to any such series. In the event that all or a portion of a management fee is waived, the Manager reserves the right to discontinue such waiver at any time without notice to or consent of applicable unitholders. Based on such discretion, the Manager has temporarily waived the management fee on ETF Series units of the Fund effective through March 31, 2026 such that, until that time, the management fee on ETF Series units of the Fund will be nil (the "Temporary Fee Reduction"). After March 31, 2026, unless further extended, the Temporary Fee Reduction will expire (without requiring notice to, or approval by, unitholders) and the management fee will be charged as described in the paragraph above.

Trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own ETF Series units of the Fund. It is for the services and advice that your representative and their firm provide to you. The ETF Series of the Fund doesn't have a trailing commission.
