WHY THIS FUND

1

Experienced Portfolio Manager with High Conviction

Tony Genua brings more than four decades of experience building concentrated, high-conviction, growth-oriented portfolios across US and global markets. At Ninepoint, he leads the Global Select team alongside Sam Mitter and Jonathan Lo, applying the same disciplined, bottom-up approach.

Built from First Principles

Each holding must earn its place in the portfolio on a daily basis - Zero assumptions, no inherited positions, no legacy bias.

Dynamic, Data-Driven Selection

Holdings reflect today's opportunities rather than past trends.

Flexibility and Agility

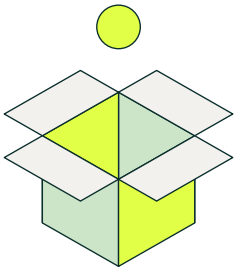

Designed to pivot quickly as new trends emerge.

Capturing Global Innovation

Holdings are chosen to represent an evolving, global innovation landscape.

All-Cap Universe

Emphasizing global mid-cap innovators and niche high-potential names that most managers overlook.

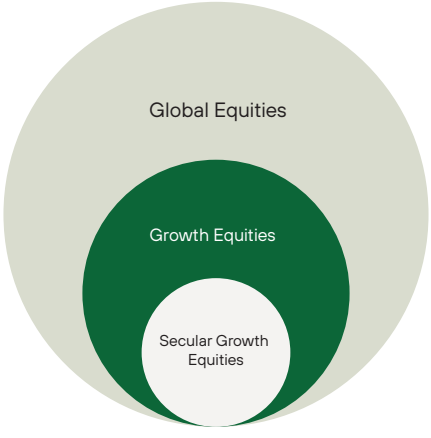

Delivering the best ideas from around the globe...

...in one convenient product.

2

Go Beyond the Benchmark to Capture Emerging Leaders

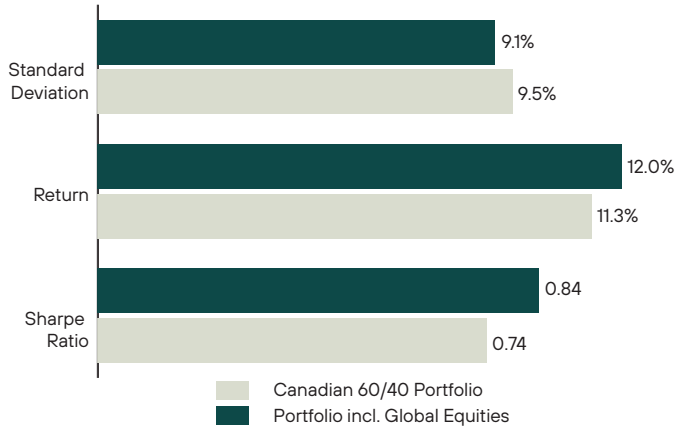

Global indices are dominated by mega-caps, leaving little exposure to the next generation of growth leaders. Ninepoint leverages top-down thematic views and bottom-up analysis to uncover innovative companies earlier in their growth cycle and builds a best ideas concentrated portfolio of approximately 30–40 growth-oriented investments.

3

Enhance the Canadian 60/40

Global equities enhance diversification in a balanced portfolio and may improve risk-adjusted returns by reducing home-country concentration.

4

Redefined Growth Opportunities

We differentiate by broadening the definition of growth stocks to ensure we take advantage of opportunities across any sector or geography.
